A photograph of a modern lobby with a wall of large, irregularly shaped mirrors. The mirrors reflect the interior, creating a complex, multi-layered visual effect. In the center, a mannequin stands on a dark carpet, wearing a long, flowing purple gown. The lighting is dramatic, with warm tones from the mirrors and cooler tones from the gown. A large white graphic element, resembling a stylized letter 'A' or a large 'V', is overlaid on the image, framing the central scene.
